What does this mean?

A waiting period is a set amount of time you must serve before being eligible to claim for benefits on your policy.

Waiting periods apply when you first join, if you rejoin after not having had health insurance for some time, or if you change to a level of cover that has additional services or higher benefits on services where waiting periods apply.

If you're switching from another private health insurer, we'll recognise the waiting periods you've already served for comparable benefits.

Limits

Per person limits	Each person on a policy can claim up to the 'per person' limit for the claiming period except where the family limit has already been reached by other members on the policy.
Family limit	Benefits are payable up to the family limit indicated in the benefits table for the claiming period.
Lifetime limit per person	A benefit with a lifetime limit means that once you reach the limit, you can no longer claim that benefit in any future year of membership, even if you change your cover.

What does this mean?

A limit is the total amount you can claim towards that service in a specific period of time. In most cases this is a financial year (1 July – 30 June).

Some of our benefits for Super Extras have a rolling year, which begins on the date a service was first provided with the limit applying to that 12 month period following the date of the first service.

ahm recognised providers

It is important that we recognise service providers so that you receive quality health care from the providers you choose.

Recognising a provider means we get specific details and credentials from them to make sure they meet both legislative and our criteria for benefit payment. All service providers must be recognised by ahm Health Insurance before we can pay benefits.

To find out if your service provider is recognised by us call 134 246 or use the online provider search tool at ahm.com.au ahm Super Extras includes loyalty limits which are based on the number of financial years you've been a member of ahm Health Insurance.

Your loyalty is rewarded

This means your annual claiming limit for some of our most popular extras benefits will increase after you've been with us for over 5, 10 and 20 years.

The nitty gritty

Health improvement benefits

In most cases we're only able to pay benefits if proof is provided that the service is to help manage a health condition and that it isn't claimable under the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme (PBS), Medicare, an employer or any other party.

Exercise classes – you can claim exercise classes provided at a gym or by a personal trainer, yoga, pilates and exercise physiology. A Health Improvement Benefit Approval Form or letter completed by your health practitioner, or evidence of participation in ahm Health Coaching, must be provided specifying the condition being managed and dated prior to the date of service of any claim. Exercise classes must be provided by a Fitness Australia accredited gym or personal trainer. You can download a copy of the Health Improvement Benefit Approval Form at ahm.com.au/downloads Cancer Council UV products – you can claim approved Cancer Council UV sun protection from the sunscreen, hats, swimwear and sunglasses range. Items from the cosmetics (including facial sunscreens), clothing, shade or accessories range aren't covered. Your receipt must identify the item as Cancer Council approved.

Disease management association fees – you can claim association fees to the Arthritis Foundation, the Asthma Foundation, the Coeliac Society, Diabetes Australia, the Heart Foundation, the Crohn's and Colitis Association and Ostomy Associations to help manage and receive support for these diagnosed chronic conditions.

Doctor's health checks and Healthy Heart checks – you can claim for health checks to assist with early diagnosis and/or prevent an illness or condition. The benefit isn't payable when your health check is claimable through Medicare, is related to employment (such as pre-employment health checks) or when you can claim it through a third party insurer. Benefits are payable for one check per person per financial year.

Preventive tests, scans and screenings – you can claim for some services that assist with early diagnosis and/or to prevent an illness or condition. However we can't pay a benefit if the test is claimable through Medicare.

Quit smoking – you can claim for laser therapy, hypnotherapy and nicotine replacement therapy (patches, gum, lozenges and inhalers) where such services are not claimable under the PBS to assist in quitting or reducing smoking with the aim to help improve or prevent an associated health condition.

Stress management courses – you can claim for courses to manage and prevent health conditions associated with high levels of stress. The courses must be provided by a recognised psychologist or as part of an ahm Health Coaching program.

Weight loss classes and courses – you can claim if the class or course is provided by ahm recognised providers Weight Watchers®, Jenny Craig® or Fernwood®. You will need to provide medical evidence of a Body Mass Index (BMI) of 26 or over. This can be in the form of a doctor's certificate, an ahm Health Improvement Benefit Approval Form, an ahm health profile (provided after completion of an online ahm Wellness Assessment) or a certificate from an ahm recognised weight loss provider. If the claim is for a child, evidence of an unhealthy BMI must be provided in the form of a doctor's certificate/letter prior to claiming benefits.

Swimming lessons – you can claim swimming lessons for children 0 - 17 years of age if provided by an Austswim® or Swim Australia accredited swim school if they have asthma, diabetes or an unhealthy BMI. Medical evidence of one of these conditions must be provided or a doctor's recommendation to undertake this activity due to their condition.

Cooling off period

If you terminate your policy within 30 days of joining and haven't claimed a benefit during this period, you're entitled to a full refund.
