If you have any queries, want further information about the policy or want to confirm a transaction, please use the contact details on the back cover of this PDS.

COOLING-OFF PERIOD

Geographical Regions

If you are travelling to multiple destinations which are in different Geographical Regions, you must select the highest Geographical Region (Region 1 being the highest Geographical Region, Region 6 the lowest), as this will cover travel in each of the lower Geographical Regions.

Destinations	Geographical Regions
USA (including Hawaii), Canada, Africa, South America, Middle East, & Japan	Region 1 - Worldwide
Europe, United Kingdom	Region 2 - Europe
Asia (excluding Japan & Bali)	Region 3 - Asia
South-west Pacific, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, Bali & Norfolk Island	Region 4 - Pacific
Multi Trip - Plan D - New Zealand only	Region 5
Australia	Region 6 - Domestic

Example:

If you are travelling to Bali, the Philippines and Europe, you must select Region 2 - Europe. You will then be covered for all destinations in Regions 2, 3, 4, 5 & 6.

Cover for any loss you suffer under Plan A, B, C or D must occur in the Geographical Region (or any lower Geographical Region) that applies to the Plan selected by you. Example:

If you have chosen Plan A and are travelling to Bali (and have accordingly selected Region 4 - Pacific), you will be covered for all destinations listed in Regions 4, 5 & 6, as well as up to 2 nights stopover in any destination in Regions 1, 2 & 3.

After this period you can still cancel your policy but we will not refund any part of your premium if you do.

You may extend your cover free of charge if you find that your return to Australia has been delayed because of one or more of the following:

- A bus line, airline, shipping line or rail authority you are travelling on, or that has accepted your fare or Luggage and Personal Effects, is delayed; or
- The delay is due to a reason for which you can claim under your policy (subject to our written approval).

If the delay is for any other reason, we must receive your request to extend cover at least 7 days before your original policy expires if you send your request by post. All other requests to extend cover must be received by us prior to your original policy expiry date. YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into this policy with us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) requires you to provide us with the information we need to enable us to decide whether and on what terms your proposal for insurance is acceptable and to calculate how much premium is required for your policy.

You will be asked various questions when you first apply for your policy. When you answer these questions, you must:

- give us honest and complete answers;
- tell us everything you know; and
- tell us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell us.

If you vary, extend, reinstate or replace the policy your duty is to tell us before that time, every matter known to you which:

- you know; or
- a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to insure you and whether any special conditions need to apply to your policy.

You do not need to tell us about any matter that:

- diminishes our risk;
- is of common knowledge;
- we know or should know as an Insurer; or
- we tell you we do not need to know.

Who does the duty apply to?

Everyone who is insured under the policy must comply with the duty of disclosure.

What happens if you or they breach the duty?

If you or they do not comply with the duty of disclosure, we may cancel the policy or reduce the amount we pay if you make a claim. If fraud is involved, we may treat the policy as if it never existed and pay nothing.

If you are entitled to claim an input tax credit in respect of your premium you must inform us of the amount of that input tax credit (as a percentage) at the time you first make a claim. If you fail to do so, you may have a liability for GST if we pay you an amount under this policy.

FRAUD

Insurance fraud places additional costs on honest policyholders. Fraudulent claims force insurance premiums to rise. We encourage the community to assist in the prevention of insurance fraud.

You can help by reporting insurance fraud by calling Allianz Global Assistance on 1800 453 937. All information will be treated as confidential and protected to the full extent under law.
