Important stuff

Your waiting periods

1 day	<ul style="list-style-type: none">› Hospital treatment as a result of an accident› Ambulance
2 months	<ul style="list-style-type: none">› Hospital treatment (where there are no pre-existing conditions)› Rehabilitation, psychiatric and palliative care (regardless of whether the condition is pre-existing)
12 months	<ul style="list-style-type: none">› Pre-existing conditions

What does this mean?

A waiting period is a set amount of time you must serve before being eligible to claim for benefits on your policy.

Waiting periods apply when you first join, if you rejoin after not having had health insurance for some time, or if you change to a level of cover that has additional services or higher benefits on services where a waiting period applies.

If you're switching from another private health insurer, we'll recognise the waiting periods you've already served for comparable benefits.

Your excess

To help keep your premium down, Budget Hospital has an excess.

What you pay:	$500 per person on the first admission to hospital in a membership year
Limit per membership year:	$500 per person / $1,000 per family

What does this mean?

At ahm Health Insurance, an excess is an up front lump sum payment that you agree to pay towards your hospital stay or day surgery on admission.

Restricted services

If a service is restricted on your cover, it means that we'll only pay a limited benefit if you're treated at a private hospital or as a private patient at a public hospital.

This benefit won't cover the full cost of treatment and you may be left with significant out-of-pocket expenses.

There are restricted services on ahm Budget Hospital.

Excluded services

If a service is excluded on your cover it means that we won't pay a benefit towards it and you will be significantly out-of-pocket if you're treated at a private or public hospital.

There are excluded services on Budget Hospital.

The nitty gritty

Where you'll be covered

When you go to hospital you can choose where you're treated and whether you're treated in a private hospital or as a private patient in a public hospital.

Partner hospitals and day surgeries

If you're treated as a private patient, ahm Health Insurance has agreements in place with the majority of private hospitals and day surgeries throughout Australia. These agreements provide cover for agreed theatre and accommodation charges for services covered under your policy. This doesn't apply to restricted or excluded services.

If you receive treatment for a restricted service in a partner hospital, we'll only pay limited benefits and you'll be significantly out-of-pocket. If you receive treatment for an excluded service, no benefits will be paid.

To find a partner hospital visit ahm.com.au

Non agreement hospitals and day surgeries

In some instances, we haven't reached an agreement with a private hospital. These hospitals are referred to as non agreement hospitals.

If you receive treatment at a non agreement hospital we'll only pay a limited benefit and you'll be significantly out-of-pocket.

Pre-existing conditions

If you're taking out private hospital cover for the first time, or changing to a cover (either within ahm or from another insurer) that has additional services or higher benefits and you have a pre-existing condition, you'll have to wait 12 months before you can claim on your hospital cover.

A pre-existing condition is an ailment, illness or condition, the signs or symptoms of which – in the opinion of a Medical Practitioner appointed by ahm Health Insurance – existed at any time in the 6 month period before you either took a new policy or changed your cover.

Medical gap

The benefit we pay towards medical services is based on the Medicare Benefits Schedule (MBS). This is a list of fees that has been issued by the Australian Government to set out the minimum amounts that Medicare and private health funds should pay towards each medical service listed. If a service is listed on the MBS and included in your cover, Medicare will pay 75% of the MBS fee and we'll pay the remaining 25%.

In some cases a doctor may choose to charge more than the MBS fee which may leave you with an out-of-pocket expense that you'll have to pay. This is known as the medical gap and is the difference between the fees you're charged by the medical providers and the MBS fees for the services they provide.

GapCover

GapCover is designed to help remove or reduce the medical gap so that you pay less for your treatment or nothing at all. If your doctor participates in GapCover we'll provide benefits up to an agreed fee and then you'll have to pay the difference. Under GapCover, the maximum gap that you'll have to pay is $500 per claiming provider (i.e. doctor's account).

A doctor can choose to participate on a case by case basis, so you should always check with them prior to agreeing to treatment and ask them to provide you with an estimate of medical fees.

Note: We don't pay any GapCover benefits for excluded services.

If your doctor chooses not to participate in GapCover, we will only pay up to the MBS fee and you'll have to pay the difference between the MBS fee and what your doctor charges you.

Search for a doctor

You can access a doctor search facility at ahm.com.au/find-a-doctor to find a list of doctors who have previously registered to participate in GapCover.

Cooling off period

If you terminate your policy within 30 days of joining and haven't claimed a benefit during this period, you're entitled to a full refund.
