Important stuff

Your waiting periods

1 day	<ul style="list-style-type: none">› Hospital treatment as a result of an accident› Ambulance› ahm Health Management Programs› Travel and accommodation
2 months	<ul style="list-style-type: none">› Hospital treatment (where there are no pre-existing conditions)› Rehabilitation, psychiatric and palliative care (regardless of whether the condition is pre-existing)
12 months	<ul style="list-style-type: none">› Pre-existing conditions› Disease management appliances› Speech processor and insulin pump replacements› ahm Pregnancy Support Program› Midwife delivery services

What does this mean?

A waiting period is a set amount of time you must serve before being eligible to claim for benefits on your policy.

Waiting periods apply when you first join, if you rejoin after not having had health insurance for some time, or if you change to a level of cover that has additional services or higher benefits on services where a waiting period applies.

If you're switching from another private health insurer, we'll recognise the waiting periods you've already served for comparable benefits.

Your co-payment

What you pay:	$400 for same day or 1 night stay per person or $800 for 2 or more nights stay per person
Limit per membership year:	$800 per person / $1,600 per family

What does this mean?

At ahm Health Insurance, a co-payment is the daily amount that you agree to pay towards the cost of treatment if you go to hospital or day surgery.

It applies to each person on your policy and there is a maximum amount each person on your policy has to pay each membership year.

We'll waive the co-payment for non-compensable hospitalisations as the result of an accident or for any child, adult child, student dependant or adult dependant on your policy who requires a hospitalisation.

Restricted services

If a service is restricted on your cover, it means that we'll only pay a limited benefit if you're treated at a private hospital or as a private patient at a public hospital.

This benefit won't cover the full cost of treatment and you may be left with significant out-of-pocket expenses.

There are no restrictions for services covered by Medicare on ahm Top Hospital.

However some services aren't fully covered because they're not included in the Medicare Benefits Schedule, such as Podiatric surgery and Cosmetic Surgery.

Excluded services

If a service is excluded it means we pay no benefits for it. There are no excluded services on Top Hospital.

Other hospital things that aren't covered

The following list outlines things that you won't be covered for on any of our Hospital covers.

- | | | |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">› Charges above the Medical Benefits Schedule (MBS) fee unless your doctor agrees to participate in GapCover. If your doctor participates in GapCover, we'll pay up to the GapCover agreed fee› Charges above the minimum benefit for surgically implanted prostheses› The full cost of your accommodation or theatre fees if you attend a non-agreement hospital or for restricted services in either a private or public hospital. Check with us on 134 246 before you go to hospital› Any benefit at all for any excluded service including (but not limited to) accommodation, theatre fees, intensive care, prosthesis, medication, allied health and medical gap› Labour ward | <ul style="list-style-type: none">› Private room accommodation, operating theatre charges and intensive care accommodation for restricted services› Treatment that is subject to a waiting period if you haven't served the relevant waiting period› Personal items including phone calls, faxes, TV, internet and newspapers› Take home bandages and dressings or any medication that you take home or that wasn't related to your hospitalisation› Service providers such as physiotherapists or occupational therapists who aren't directly employed by the hospital you're treated in. You may be entitled to receive a benefit towards these services if you have an ahm Extras policy. | <ul style="list-style-type: none">› Some high cost Non PBS drugs – the hospital should advise you if these drugs won't be paid for by us. This is part of their responsibility to obtain your Informed Financial Consent.› Medical costs for services not covered by Medicare or excluded services.› Any medical, hospital or ambulance services received overseas or purchased outside Australia, including online purchases from overseas companies› All Cosmetic Surgery procedures› A claim payable or subsidised by a third party (such as workers compensation or traffic accident schemes). |

The nitty gritty

Where you'll be covered

When you go to hospital you can choose where you're treated and whether you're treated in a private hospital or as a private patient in a public hospital.

Partner hospitals and day surgeries

If you're treated as a private patient, ahm Health Insurance has agreements in place with the majority of private hospitals and day surgeries throughout Australia. These agreements provide cover for agreed theatre and accommodation charges for services covered under your policy. This doesn't apply to restricted or excluded services.

If you receive treatment for a restricted service in a partner hospital, we'll only pay limited benefits and you'll be significantly out-of-pocket. If you receive treatment for an excluded service, no benefits will be paid.

To find a partner hospital visit ahm.com.au

Non agreement hospitals and day surgeries

In some instances, we haven't reached an agreement with a private hospital. These hospitals are referred to as non agreement hospitals.

If you receive treatment at a non agreement hospital we'll only pay a limited benefit and you'll be significantly out-of-pocket.

Pre-existing conditions

If you're taking out private hospital cover for the first time, or changing to a cover (either within ahm or from another insurer) that has additional services or higher benefits and you have a pre-existing condition, you'll have to wait 12 months before you can claim on your hospital cover.

A pre-existing condition is an ailment, illness or condition, the signs or symptoms of which – in the opinion of a Medical Practitioner appointed by ahm Health Insurance – existed at any time in the 6 month period before you either took a new policy or changed your cover.

Medical gap

The benefit we pay towards medical services is based on the Medicare Benefits Schedule (MBS). This is a list of fees that has been issued by the Australian Government to set out the minimum amounts that Medicare and private health funds should pay towards each medical service listed. If a service is listed on the MBS and included in your cover, Medicare will pay 75% of the MBS fee and we'll pay the remaining 25%.

In some cases a doctor may choose to charge more than the MBS fee which may leave you with an out-of-pocket expense that you'll have to pay. This is known as the medical gap and is the difference between the fees you're charged by the medical providers and the MBS fees for the services they provide.

GapCover

GapCover is designed to help remove or reduce the medical gap so that you pay less for your treatment or nothing at all.

If your doctor participates in GapCover we'll provide benefits up to an agreed fee and then you'll have to pay the difference. Under GapCover, the maximum gap that you'll have to pay is $500 per claiming provider (i.e. doctor's account).

A doctor can choose to participate on a case by case basis, so you should always check with them prior to agreeing to treatment and ask them to provide you with an estimate of medical fees.

Note: We don't pay any GapCover benefits for excluded services.

If your doctor chooses not to participate in GapCover, we will only pay up to the MBS fee and you'll have to pay the difference between the MBS fee and what your doctor charges you.

Search for a doctor

You can access a doctor search facility at ahm.com.au/find-a-doctor to find a list of doctors who have previously registered to participate in GapCover.

Cooling off period

If you terminate your policy within 30 days of joining and haven't claimed a benefit during this period, you're entitled to a full refund.
